Report No. TEL-01909S

Streamlined International Applications Accepted For Filing

Section 214 Applications (47 C.F.R. §§ 63.18, 63.24); Section 310(b) Petitions (47 C.F.R. § 1.5000)

Unless otherwise specified, the following procedures apply to the applications listed below:

The international Section 214 applications listed below have been found, upon initial review, to be acceptable for filing and subject to the streamlined processing procedures set forth in Section 63.12 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.12. These applications are for authority under Section 214 of the Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. § 214(a), to transfer control of an authorized carrier or to assign a carrier's existing authorization; and/or (b) to become a facilities-based international common carrier; and/or (c) to become a resale-based international common carrier.

Pursuant to Section 63.12 of the rules, these Section 214 applications will be granted 14 days after the date of this public notice (see 47 C.F.R. § 1.4 regarding computation of time), and the applicant may commence operations on the 15th day, unless the Commission has informed the applicant in writing, within 14 days after the date of this public notice, that the application, on further examination, has been deemed ineligible for streamlined processing. Pursuant to Section 1.1910(b)(2) of the rules, action will be withheld on any application by any entity found to be delinquent in its debts to the Commission. Applicants should check the Red Light Display System's website at www.fcc.gov/redlight to determine if they are delinquent in a debt to the Commission and for information on how to pay the debt.

Communications between outside parties and Commission staff concerning these applications are permitted subject to the Commission's rules for "permit-but-disclose proceedings." See 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206. An application can be removed from streamlined processing only in the sound discretion of Commission staff. The filing of comments or a petition to deny will not necessarily result in an application being deemed ineligible for streamlined processing.

People with Disabilities: To request materials in accessible formats for people with disabilities (braille, large print, electronic files, audio format), send an e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at 202-418-0530 (voice), 1-888-835-5322 (tty). All applications listed are subject to further consideration and review, and may be returned and/or dismissed if not found to be in accordance with the Commission's rules, regulations, and other requirements.

We request that comments on any of these applications refer to the application file number shown below.

Transfer of Control

Current Licensee: Burlington Telecom

FROM: Burlington Telecom

TO: Champlain Broadband, LLC

Application filed for consent to the transfer of control of Burlington Telecom, which holds international section 214 authorization ITC-214-20171121-00209, from the City of Burlington, Vermont to Champlain Broadband, LLC (Champlain). The City of Burlington provides telecommunications services through Burlington Telecom, a department of the City. Pursuant to a December 20, 2017 Assets Purchase Agreement, Champlain will acquire Burlington Telecom from the City of Burlington. Upon closing, Burlington Telecom will be wholly owned by Champlain.

Champlain, Vermont limited liability company, is wholly owned by Schurz communications, Inc. (Schurz) that was created solely to effectuate the instant transaction. Schurz is a privately-held Indiana corporation.

Schurz is owned by the following entities and individuals, all U.S. citizens: Schurz Communication Voting Trust Agreement (Trust), an irrevocable trust formed under the laws of Indiana (75.17%) (Trustees: Franklin D. Schurz, Jr. (33.3%), Todd F. Schurz (CEO) (33.3%), Scott C. Schurz (Chairman) (33.3%); Beneficiaries: Franklin D. Schurz, Jr. (28%), Scott C. Schurz (28%), Mary Ann Schurz, shareholder (19%). A prior disclosable interest holder, David C. Ray, passed away on August 10, 2017, and his interests passed to his wife Laura E. Ray and their four children, in five separate trusts, each below the disclosure threshold. Laura E. Ray is the family trustee for each of the five trusts and holds in aggregate 12% indirect voting interest in Schurz, which interest is exercised by Harvey B. Wallace, as an independent trustee and attorney for Mrs. Ray and her children for the five trusts and for the David C. Ray Trust, an irrevocable trust formed under the laws of Indiana. As an independent trustee, Mr. Wallace holds 15% indirect voting rights in Schurz. No other entity or individual holds a 10% or greater direct or indirect equity or voting interest in Schurz.
